Position Statement on Doctrine

In our quest for revival and restoration, we recognize that before we can fully experience New Testament power, we must first return to New Testament patterns, principles and priorities. When the patterns are right, the Glory of God will manifest and His power will be released. The early Believers "continued steadfastly in the Apostle's Doctrine, in fellowship, the breaking of bread and in prayers." (Acts 2:42). As God restores these apostolic truths to His Church today, He is laying a foundation that can be built upon securely.

We must acknowledge that God is neither explained by nor limited to any set of doctrinal beliefs or statements. There is as well the danger, as church history has shown, of men limiting themselves by such articles, becoming unprepared to advance in God when the light of recovered truth begins to shine. We see the result of this in the many denominations and organizations around us. The trend among some, however, of declaring doctrine to be unnecessary or unimportant, is absolutely contrary to scripture. The Bible is clear on the importance of doctrine. It must not only be sound, pure and scriptural, but it must also be obeyed.

All beliefs have their roots in various teachings, true or false. These doctrines, when believed and practiced, determine not only our actions but also our character and ultimately our destiny. Many otherwise sincere people have been led into deception. Thus, it is essential for us to be fully established in the doctrines as set forth in the scriptures. When a believer is established in the Apostle's doctrine they will no longer be blown about by every wind of doctrine (Eph. 4:4) or become ensnared by the doctrines of demons (I Tim. 4:1).

-- It does matter who and what we believe! --

(Titus 1:9,2:11; II Tim. 3; 14-17; I Tim. 4:6,13,16, 6:1-3)

Apostolic Doctrine

In this age of "easy believeism" what the world needs most is the reality of Jesus Christ and the true Gospel.

True Biblical Christianity is Pentecostal, Apostolic, and Oneness.

We believe in the one everlasting True God who has revealed Himself as the Father in creation: through the Son in redemption; and as the Holy Ghost at work in the lives of believers. The basic and fundamental doctrine of this ministry shall be the Bible standard of full salvation, which is repentance, baptism in water by immersion in the Name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins, and the baptism of the Holy Ghost with the evidence of speaking with other tongues as the Spirit gives the utterance.

Statement of Faith

We believe:

- In the One True and Living God who has manifested himself as Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. (Dt 6:4; Mt 28:19, Lk 13:3, Jn 8:24)
- The Bible alone is the inspired, inerrant and infallible Word of God, our only guide to faith and conduct. (II Tim 3:16; II Pe 1:20-21)
- Created in the image and likeness of God, man was given authority and dominion over all creation. Through Adam's transgression, sin and death entered into the world, man's righteousness was lost and his authority and dominion were handed over to the devil. (Ge1:26-28; Ro 5:12; Lk 4:5-6)
- Because of his great love for us, God took upon himself the form of man and came to our aid. Thus, Jesus Christ, the only begotten Son of God-truly God, truly man-was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of a virgin, was crucified, died and was buried. (Jn 3:16; Is 7:14; Jn 1:1-3; Jn 8:29; Acts 2:36; I Co 15:3,4)
- This same Jesus defeated Satan and all the powers of darkness, taking from them the keys of death and hell, and overcoming death itself, resurrected from the grave. No longer the only begotten Son, He arose the First-born from the dead, the First-born of a New Creation and First born of many brethren. (Rev 1:5,18; Col 1:15-18)
- Jesus ascended into heaven, giving gifts to men. Now seated at the right hand of the Father, making intercession for us all, He has sent forth his Spirit to indwell and empower believers. (Mk 16:19; Eph 4:8-11; Acts 2:33; Jn 16:7)
- As the King of kings and Lord of lords, Jesus is The Way, The Truth and The Life. You must be born again of water and the Spirit, receiving Him as Lord and Savior, in order to see the Kingdom of God. The righteousness, authority, and dominion, lost by Adam in the Garden of Eden, is now restored in Christ. (Jn 3:5; Acts 2:38; I Tim 6:15; Jn 14:6; Jn 3:3; II Co 5:17,21)
- Water baptism is by immersion in the Name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins, in obedience to the direct command of the Word of God. In this ordinance, we are identified with our Lord in His death, burial, and resurrection. (Mk 16:15,16; Acts 2:38; 8:12; 10:48; 19:5; 22:16)
- His promise to baptize believers with the Holy Ghost and fire. According to the scriptures and the experience of history, this is accompanied by the evidence of signs and wonders including speaking with other tongues, boldness to witness and ability to declare His Word in the demonstration of the Spirit and power. (Mt 3:11; Acts 1:4,5,8; Acts 2:4,38; Acts 4:31, I Co 2:4)

- All of the gifts of the spirit are functional in the church today, available to all believers. (I Co 12:1-12)
- In sanctification through the Word of God by the Holy Ghost, personal holiness and purity of heart and life. (Jn 15:3; I Th 4:3-4; I Pe 1:15)
- The substitutionary atonement of the Lord Jesus Christ paid not only for the salvation of our spirits but also for the healing of our bodies. Thus, divine healing, through faith in the Name of Jesus, is included in our redemption. (Is 53:4-5; Mt 8:17; I Pe 2:24)
- In the soon return of the Lord Jesus Christ, the resurrection of the dead, the eternal joy of the saved and the eternal punishment of the lost. (I Th 4:14-18; Acts 1:9-11; Mt 25:31-46)
- As believers, we have been given a universal commission to go into the entire world and preach the Gospel making disciples of all nations. These believers will lay hands on the sick and they shall recover. (Mk 16:15-20; Mt 28:18-20; Lk 24:47-49; Acts 1:8)
- God has set in his church, the five-fold ministry gifts of Apostles, Prophets, Evangelists, Pastors, and Teachers, for the purpose of equipping of the saints. These anointed believers, in turn, carry out the work of ministry, thus building up the Body of Christ. (Eph 4:10-16)

Position Statement on Secular Accreditation

Secular Accreditation by the State of Texas or the U.S. Department of Education is not necessary for the theological degrees which we offer.

Generally speaking, people working in ministry positions do not need a secularly accredited degree. Government-recognized accreditation is not necessary for the religious vocations we are training people in, which include: Biblical Studies, Theology, and Ministry.

If you are pursuing education at MBIS with the intent of obtaining licensing, employment or for some other reason, you should check with that organization BEFORE applying for enrollment in MBIS. MBIS assumes no responsibility or liability of any kind.

Individuals seeking employment in government-licensed positions such as public school teachers, state-licensed psychologists or psychiatrists, and non-church-related counselors need government-recognized accredited degrees. Generally, people working in ministry positions do not need a government-accredited degree. In fact, many churches take a stand against the Church voluntarily placing itself under government regulations.

- There is secular education and there is religious education.
- Religious schools are not legally required to become accredited
- Secular schools seek secular education, and sacred schools receive sacred or ecclesiastic accreditation—each by their own peers.
- Religious institutions need no secular accreditation because they offer no secular degrees.
- Secular accreditation associations, in turn, are recognized by governmental agencies. They trace their authority back to the capital of a country, like Washington, D.C.
- Religious accrediting associations are recognized by the Church of Jesus Christ, which has no supreme central office on earth. Our authority is derived directly from Heaven.
- Civil and religious interests are different and have separate realms of jurisdiction.
- The State is not superior to the Church. The Church need not wait for approval from the secular world.

- Civil agencies should not be dictating standards of Christian education, any more than a police officer should be directing the worship of God.
- Theological Seminaries should not be accredited by accrediting associations that are “recognized” by an agency of the federal government, because it is contrary to the Biblical principle of “Separation of Church and State,” indicated by Christ when He said, “...Render unto Caesar the things that are Caesar’s and to God the things that are God’s...” (Mark 12:17).
- What business does a Christian educator have going to the world of unbelievers for recognition and acknowledgment when 2 Corinthians 6:14 clearly tells us, “Be ye not unequally yoked together with unbelievers: for what fellowship hath righteousness with unrighteousness?”
- A Christian educational institution securing accreditation from an association which is attached to a governmental agency is a Scripturally condemned and unholy union as James 4:4 says, “Ye adulterers and adulteresses, know ye not that the friendship of the world is enmity with God?”

Why not become accredited by the Department of Education? In many cases, the government’s Department of Education is not qualified to accredit a private school, such as a Bible School, because the DOE is secular and a Bible or Christian School is spiritual thus our standards are not secular and cannot be judged by secular standards!

As we find in 1 Corinthians 2:14 “But the natural man receiveth, not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned.” Therefore a state agency is not able to determine if a spiritually directed learning institution is meeting the mandates of the Bible!

Accreditation has many benefits for both educational institutions and students, but it is neither a guaranty nor is it the sole criterion of an excellent education. Every accredited institution was once unaccredited. For example, Dallas Theological Seminary (DTS) was founded in 1924 but was not accredited by SACS until 1969, long after the graduation of notables such as Dwight Pentecost, Charles Ryrie, and Chuck Swindoll. Dallas Theological Seminary was not accredited by ATS until 1994, but its excellent education before then is unassailable.

Where promotional material for an unaccredited institution consists of an advertisement in a periodical published by a person or entity that is not affiliated with the unaccredited institution, the disclosure required in subsection (a) may be abbreviated to state as follows NOT ACCREDITED BY AN AGENCY RECOGNIZED BY THE U.S. SECRETARY OF EDUCATION. The disclosure required under this subsection shall be made in a type size as large or larger than any other text in the advertisement.

Mineola Bible Institute and Seminary is not accredited, and has no plans to pursue any type of secular accreditation for the following particular reasons: (1) to keep our expenses low, enabling MBIS to maintain its very low tuition rates – pursuit of accreditation would require a dramatic increase in costs passed on to the student; (2) to maintain doctrinal autonomy, and (3) to continue the utilization of MBIS-educated faculty to ensure theological and philosophical consistency with the doctrinal statement and mission of MBIS. The pursuit of accreditation would make this increasingly difficult.

Finally, we believe the quality of our programs is evident, and MBIS graduates will be distinguished by their maturity, understanding, and skill in exegetical and expositional disciplines. We believe our programs are of the highest quality, and we are committed to continuous improvement in the academic realm, and therefore we believe that prospective students or any students transferring from other institutions will be impressed by the academic standards of Mineola.

Frequently Asked Questions

Q: How long has MBIS been in ministry and how many graduates are there?

A: Mineola Bible Institute is an outgrowth and affiliate program of Cypress Bible Institute in Van, Texas. The Lord burdened Bishop D.R. Vestal, PhD to begin Cypress Bible Institute in 1991. Since that time, he has enrolled and/or graduated some 1000 students.

Q: How large is your campus?

A: MBIS operates strictly from the "college without walls" model using well proven distance educational study methods.

Q: What is the official doctrinal position of the Mineola Bible Institute and Seminary?

A: We are an apostolic, Pentecostal, teaching ministry. Our full Statement of Faith can be found on our website or in the Student Handbook.

Q: Does MBIS issue degrees?

A: Yes! MBIS issues degrees by exemption in the State of Texas.

Q: God has called me as a minister, but I know very little about it. Will your program equip me properly for that?

A: Yes! This program is very thorough; written by a minister especially for ministers. Several courses will lead you "by the hand" step by step with clear, easy to follow instructions on how to study, prepare, and preach sermons, how to baptize, conduct weddings, funerals, child dedications, communion services, and much more.

Q: Where can I view the curriculum for the degree programs?

A: There is a full description of our courses in the Student handbook, or you can visit our website: mineolabiblecollege.org.

Q: Why do you use the King James Bible exclusively?

A: While courses may be done with any translation, we encourage the use of the KJV for its richness, immutability, trustworthiness, and manuscript authority. If you don't have one, we highly encourage you to obtain an "Old Scofield Study Bible" in the KJV. One can be purchased for around $20 from Christian Book Distributors [www.christianbook.com].

Q. Why a Scofield Bible? Don't you disagree with its doctrinal stances?

A. While there are many areas in which we disagree with the doctrinal positions and notes of the Scofield Bible, the fact remains, it is virtually unsurpassed in the usefulness of its reference system. The Chain References, Topical Index, Names Index, Subject Index and comprehensive Concordance provide an extensive library of study and reference materials. The doctrinal positions of the Institute are clearly stated in our Statement of Faith and thoroughly taught in our course materials, so there is no confusion as to what we believe. (In brief, the Old Scofield Bible is recommended for its study system and not its doctrinal teachings).

Q: Can I receive credit for courses taken through other schools or from my ministry experience?

A: Yes, you can! You need to fill out the information requested in the Life Experience Portfolio (available upon request). Once evaluated, this will give you Advanced Standing into the next higher degree track. Example: if you enroll in the 60 hour Associate degree study track with (let's say) 60 hours of transferrable credits (college and life experience per analysis), you will have accumulated 120 hours upon completion and thus be eligible for a Bachelor of Theology (Th.B) rather than an Associate of Theology (Th.A) degree.

Q: Are text materials included in the cost of these programs.

A: Yes! Aside from your central textbook, the Bible, all necessary course materials are included in our low tuition price. There are no extra or hidden costs!

Q: What forms of payment are available?

A: We accept Checks, Western Union M.O.'s as well as Visa, Mastercard, etc, via Stripe or PayPal. All Foreign students MUST pay by Western Union Money Order or PayPal.

Q: Will you accept payments?

A: No. Due to the extremely low cost of our tuition, all courses must be paid in full before course materials will be sent out.

Q: How can you keep your costs so low?

A: If we could manage, we wouldn't charge at all! However, every school must pay expenses. Most charge per credit hour fees or yearly tuition most of our students can't afford. No one here draws a full-time salary, plus we don't have buildings and stadiums to maintain. We have, since 1991, invested the Lord's money in ministry to people wherever possible.

Q: What are the steps for enrollment?

A: Fill out the Student Enrollment Application and write your essay, complete the LEP, where appropriate, read, mark, and sign the Student Release and return them all including your Application Fee and Tuition to MBI.

My ministry has grown because of you and Mineola Bible Institute and Seminary's courses taken. Thank you all, and God bless you all in Jesus' Name." Rev. William Shumpert III Clovis, N.M.

"Dr. Vestal, I have checked other Bible Colleges and their curriculum, I am proud to say that you have the best courses offered to students anywhere. There is no other Bible College that can match your courses, they are excellent, and so much in-depth more than the others. Your degrees are also more affordable than all the others. Your easy payment plans make it appealing to prospective students, keep up the good work." Dr. Kenneth Green Halethorp, Indiana

"Dear Chancellor of MBIS, How God connected me to you is incomprehensible. I never knew that I would meet a person like you on earth. I never knew that such a man like you among Apostolics can be found, whose knowledge surpasses and understanding is supernatural. Blessed are those who are connected to MBIS. Blessed are those who sit under your feet for learning. Very few Apostolics can teach these things. How you came to know all these mysteries of the Word is a secret to people, but God knows why. In short, in His plan, God deposited much in your ministry for people to be helped. I can see why you have been standing almost alone among other Apostolics like the UPC and so forth., Very few can understand you and your ministry. It is bad for those who want to study these deeper things freely. They are beyond millions of dollars." Dr. Prince Gadama Malawi, Africa

"At Mineola Bible Institute and Seminary, they treat each student as a family member, praying for them and helping with questions; they are very flexible in the finance department and you get more material than any other Bible College around. I was able to use my MBIS material immediately in my ministry right away, from the first lesson received. You don't have to wait around for DVD's or CD's and all the electronic gadgets; I was able to use the old-fashioned lessons right away with my Bible and carry it with me. The materials are sent complete and ready to study. It is very user-friendly & for older students as well, it is a great bargain on the money end of things, thanks for the great education! Dr. Vestal is highly regarded and respected in the apostolic doctrine and Pentecostal churches; he is an established global author and authority on many religious subjects. I would try out the school, you will not be sorry—don't waste any time looking at the other schools, this is the one, and you will be greatly blessed."

Prisoners:

"Thank you for your love and concern for many of the souls God has sent to you in obtaining more knowledge of God. May He richly bless you and your family as well as all those who are enrolled in Mineola Bible Institute and Seminary." Terry Johnson Greencastle, Indiana

"Rev. Vestal, I pray that this letter reaches you in the joy of the Lord. I praise God always for your service in the Lord, which is very much appreciated by me and others who are enrolled in Mineola Bible Institute and Seminary. The information you sent to me was truly a good response to a very weak argument. I am truly convinced that the house of Yahweh is false and it distracts men from the truth of God's Word. Thank you for that information, it will be a blessing to many brothers. Thank you again for being there for me over the last three years. I know the Lord Jesus is blessing you because you have not forgotten about the brethren in prison. God bless in Jesus' Name!"
Woodrow Lockett Avenal, California

"Bro. Vestal, I am enjoying the lessons very much, I especially enjoyed the lesson on the beatitudes, they have stuck with me more than all the rest. The way they were broke down made them spiritual meat and I am still dining on them." Mickey Powell Wasco, California

"Dear.Bro. Vestal, I have studied the lesson on 50 Sermons For Saints & Sinners for the past two weeks and have learned a lot from them. Thank you for allowing me to preach them as the Holy Spirit leads me to do so. Here on the unit, I have told others about your programs and what you do for those in prison." John Randall Midway, Texas

"Praise the Lord!" It gives me much joy to know that we have someone who is preaching and teaching the true gospel of Jesus Christ. I truly look forward to attaining my diplomas in Theology with Mineola Bible Institute and Seminary. May God continue to bless you and your good work for those incarcerated." Samuel Young Pendleton, Indiana

"Rev. Vestal, I pray that all is well for you and your loved ones. I'm writing to say that I just completed the 20 themes for my Master's diploma in Theology, and I must say that it was very good for me to have to research and write all that I have learned in the past year or so. The knowledge that Mineola Bible Institute and Seminary has given me is priceless, and I now can say that I am ready to go into the world and teach the Gospel. I am very happy to be a student of Mineola Bible Institute and Seminary." Joseph Roberts

Sparta, Georgia

"Greetings to all at Mineola in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ. These studies have allowed me to apply fellowship in an effective manner. The course you offered on Moral Philosophy was especially useful to me in sharpening my communication skills and finding a reason for applying mature patience while discovering a brother's true intentions within a given conversation. I feel fortunate indeed to prepare for work in our Lord's kingdom." Fernando deLezica Jackson, Michigan

"Bro. Vestal, the Hermeneutics course is great, I decided to work on it first. Mineola Bible Institute has been a blessing to me, and the knowledge gained is invaluable to me in the ministry."

Daniel Lee Bellrichard Lovelady, Texas

"I want to thank you for what has been the most tremendous learning experience of my life! I doubt that anything I have ever done has meant as much to me. I am particularly grateful for the extra help you provided in both additional courses and material. As a direct result of your kindness, I am able to be released from my facility on December 21st, knowing that many seeds have been planted here and leaders are in place to carry forth what I leave, the apostolic doctrines. I am still amazed at the hunger of the men as well as the intensity of the opposition. We are referred to by visiting teachers as those so-called Christians who do not believe in the Trinity. Dr. Vestal, I appreciate so much all you have done. I am extremely proud to be a part of the Mineola legacy both as a continuing student in the Ph.D. degree program, and now as an alumnus. I look forward to meeting you soon." Larry Yates Huntsville, Texas

"Bro. Vestal, I would like to say that I appreciate the work you are doing through Mineola Bible Institute and Seminary. My knowledge and understanding of the Bible has increased immeasurably. This would not be possible except you and your staff made a consorted effort to work with the least of these (us) incarcerated in prison. I really appreciate the ministry and burden God has placed on your heart. May the Lord continue to bless, enrich, and strengthen your work through Mineola Bible Institute and Seminary." Daryl Jarrett II Westville, Indiana

"As always, I want to continue to thank you and the Administration for allowing me such a great opportunity to advance my knowledge hi God's Word. Also, for the opportunity to become an alumnus and part of the Mineola Bible Institute and Seminary family. Eric M. Denet Angola, Louisiana
