

Student Name _____

CHEMICAL DEPENDENCY

1. Drug dependency is a state in which the use of a drug is _____ for _____ well being.
2. Those drugs most frequently abused are downers, uppers, and psychedelics.
True or False
3. The downers include, alcohol, sedatives, and tranquilizers such as Valium, Darvon, and Seconal.
True or False
4. When neurotransmission is slowed down, the heart rate speeds up and breathing is suppressed.
True or False
5. Hyperactivity and anxiety are experienced as the brain rebounds, or _____ back.
6. Alcohol is metabolized in the _____ at the rate of one-half ounce every hour.
7. Alcohol ranked Number One among drugs involved in _____ room visits.
8. Sedatives are basically those drugs that have a calming, _____ effect.
9. The nonbarbiturate sedatives have been called the _____.
10. One of the oldest drugs known to mankind is codeine. True or False
11. From opium comes morphine and codeine. True or False
12. The effects of combining an opiate with a sedative (alcohol) are extremely _____
13. Uppers are referred to as _____ and include the amphetamines Benzadrine, Dexadrine, Elavil, and cocaine and other drugs used mainly for diet and _____ reduction.
14. Amphetamines are referred to as speed, those stimulates that rev up the human _____ and pour _____ into the system.
15. Ritalin is used in children as a reducer of restlessness, hyperactivity, and distractibility.
True or False
16. Ritalin is an amphetamine-like chemical that locates itself in the neurotransmission of the _____ of the brain.
17. Cocaine, gold dust, or the champagne of drugs is the _____ drug of choice of the day.

18. Nyquil and Formula 44 are high in alcohol. True or False
19. The marriage of cocaine and alcohol is a ticking _____ bomb.
20. Cocaine was the fun powder of the twenties. True or False
21. Another form of cocaine is called crack, a mixture of cocaine and common _____ soda and _____.
22. LSD is a psychedelic drug. True or False
23. Marijuana is a mixture of crushed leaves, flowers, and small branches of the hemp plant _____.
24. The primary psychoactive agent of marijuana is tetrahydrocannabinol (THC).
True or False
25. The most insidious effects of marijuana are in the _____.
26. The term dual-addiction means addiction to three drugs. True or False
27. Speedballing is mixing cocaine and heroin together. True or False
28. Tolerance to any drug can be seen as an indication of addiction. True or False
29. A person recovering from drug and/or alcohol addiction is playing _____ when they use other depressant drugs.
30. A drug is a drug is a drug. True or False
31. Many people today die from drugs and alcohol. True or False
32. Euphoria, it is that desirous euphoric state that is the siren's call to a life of _____
33. Drugs and alcohol has destroyed careers, fractured marriages and broken children, the loss of quality of life and billions of dollars that are the landmarks of that devastation that we once called peace.
True or False
34. What is a reefer? _____.
35. What does Cold Turkey mean? _____
_____.

DRUGS

1. Valium a minor tranquilizer used to relieve _____ and _____, is the most widely prescribed drug in the world.
2. Drug dependence is generally defined as habitual use of a drug. True or False
3. What is addiction? _____.
4. What is disorientation? _____.
5. What is hallucinations? _____.
6. PH is the abbreviation for "hydrogen power." True or False

ALCOHOL

1. No drug has meant so much to so many as alcohol. True or False
2. Alcohol is the tranquilizer you can buy without a _____.
3. Alcohol cannot be abused. True or False
4. Chemically, alcohol is a depressant. True or False
5. Alcohol also intoxicates. True or False
6. Alcohol contains protein. True or False
7. What is lechery? _____.
8. Alcohol may provide us with an excuse for an assortment of _____ we consider _____.
9. Treatment of alcoholism has been a frustrating endeavor. True or False
10. Mixing antabuse with alcohol can cause feelings of happiness. True or False

Marijuana

1. Where does marijuana come from? _____.
2. What is the substance called THC? _____.
3. Hashish is a drug derived from the resin of cannabis sativa. True or False

4. What is glaucoma? _____
_____.

5. Marijuana increases the heart rate. True or False

6. Marijuana can produce “good feelings.” True or False

7. Marijuana cannot be addictive. True or False

Cigarettes

1. Cigarette smoking causes cancer of the lungs among other things. True or False

2. Second-hand smoke is not a problem. True or False

3. Tobacco smoke contains carbon monoxide. True or False

4. What is hemoglobin? _____.

5. What is nicotine? _____.

6. For some young people smoking has been a symbol of having come of age.
True or False

7. Some people find pleasure in the handling of cigarettes. True or False

8. If you want to quit smoking, stay away from people who are smoking. True or False

9. To quit smoking ask God to help you in Jesus Name. True or False

Amphetamines

1. Soldiers used amphetamines during World War II. True or False

2. Truck drivers do not use amphetamines. True or False

3. Hyperactive means less active than normal. True or False

4. Bennies (for Bendzedrine). True or False

5. Some people commit suicide when crashing. True or False

Opiates and Opioids

1. Opiates are a group of narcotics derived from the opium poppy. True or False

2. Morphine was used during the Civil War to deaden pain in soldiers. True or False
 3. What is "soldiers disease?" _____.
 4. Heroin was hailed as "the hero" that would cure addiction to morphine. True or False
 5. Heroin became known as G.O.M. What is G.O.M.? _____.
 6. Heroin is legal to buy in all states of the U.S. True or False
 7. What is quinine? _____.
 8. What is methadone? _____.
-

Cocaine

1. Cocaine is brewed from Coca leaves as "tea." True or False
2. Users of cocaine are often devoted and poor. True or False
3. Cocaine is very addictive. True or False
4. Cocaine is also called snow and _____.
5. Cocaine is a stimulant, not a narcotic. True or False

Barbiturates and Methaqualone

1. If its name ends in -tal, it may well be a barbiturate. True or False
2. Barbiturate is an addictive depressant used to relieve _____ or induce _____.
3. Methaqualone is also addictive and not considered dangerous. True or False
4. Barbiturates and Methaqualone are popular as street drugs because they relax the _____ and produce a mild _____ state.

LSD

1. LSD is the acronym for _____.
2. LSD produces vivid and colorful hallucinations. True or False

- 3. What is an acronym? _____.
- 4. Flashbacks may occur after using LSD, weeks or longer. True or False
- 5. Mescaline is derived from the peyote cactus. True or False
- 6. Phencyclidine is abbreviated as PCP. True or False

Summary

- 1. Drug addiction has a culture associated with it. True or False
- 2. There are two different approaches to the control of drug addiction. Name them:
 - A. _____
_____.
 - B. _____

_____.